EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Democratic politicians have been felicitating themselves upon certain difficulties of the Republicans in Pennsylvania and elsewhere to such an extent that they appeared almost to forget their own troubles in New York and the dangers with which they were beset through widespread discontent in various Southern States. But there seems to be somewhat of a reaction among them, and they are just now not half so tickled as they thought they were. The old bickerings and the general condition of dismay caused by the utter lack of concordant policy and the want of brains or leadership, return to plague them now as in the past. The Oregon election rather opened their eyes. Ever since the veto of the first Chinese bill by the President the Democrats had chuckled over their smartness and good luck in capturing the Pacific slope, as they supposed, but since the first gun from this quarter has been heard from their high spirits and great expectations have "sloped." This is merely a fresh illustration of their bad management and miscalculation.

San Francisco is in a fair way to settle the Chinese question in a perfectly legal way. Every ship from China is strictly searched for smallpox, and if any is found a rigid quarantine is at once enforced. The people are refusing to employ them, and as a natural consequence great suffering is reported caused by the lack of employment. It is thought the city authorities will be compelled to provide means to prevent wholesale starvation. Owing to the systematic opposition against them thousands of the poor devils are on the verge of starvation, unable to obtain employment in the city or country, and without means to get back to their native land. If every town on the Coast would do likewise no legislation would be required. Chinamen will not come to America when they cannot make money by so doing.

The Lowell, Mass., Citizen is authority for the statement that an Arizona genius has invented a method by which he can, at small expense, produce by artificial means a whirlwind. He would find that the Iowa people could raise a whirlwind around his ears if he tried to introduce it in that section.

The country is edified with a fresh outbreak of Democratic zeal about Civil Service Reform. Every election is preceded by a demonstration of this kind. It always makes a dull epoch in politics and a state of despair in the Democratic household.

The quarrel between the doctors et al. over Guiteau's corpse still affords congenial material for the gentlemen of the Associated Press to work upon; but everybody else is heartily sick and tired of the whole subject.

The Democrats know exactly what they want. It is to turn the Republican party out of office, and to put themselves in. So consumed are they with this desire that they are stone-blind to everything else.

The Lander Free Press has just entered upon its second year and volume. Friend Sproule has given the Battle Mountain people a good paper and they have patronized him well. Correct all around.

When a British fleet last lay with hostile guns pointed toward Alexandria Horatio Nelson was on deck, and Napoleon was there.

In most cases the strikers in Eastern cities have gained concessions from employers.

W. J. Renrose, Constable at Ruby Hill, who was shot by Jack Weburn, Tuesday night is still alive, but the surgeons agree that unless the ball becomes encysted, he can live but a few days longer. Weyburn is still at large and it is suspected that friends in Eureka are secreting him until such time as he can escape from the country.

The San Jose Mercury tells this: "Permit me to congratulate you, General, upon your nomination," said a gentleman to General Stoneman shortly after the announcement of the result. "Congratulate the people," he replied, with a stately wave of the hand. Ahem.

A quarantine officer at San Francisco discovered twenty-one more cases of smallpox on the steamer Belgic and seventeen doubtful cases. The Chinese and cabin passengers will be quarantined in separate hulks. The Belgic, after disinfection, will be docked.

Partially Counterfeit.

The commission of experts appointed to examine the Doyle $1,000 bond plate, and determine whether it was counterfeit or genuine, reported to Secretary Folger of the Treasury. The Secretary spent some time in examining the report of the commission. The report, or reports, for there were several of them, with the conclusions of the Secretary, will soon be given to the public. Able experts, who were not interested in the result, expressed the opinion that the plate is genuine, while the Government experts, who have an interest in the matter, say the plate is counterfeit. The Secretary, it is said, will pronounce the plate, as a whole, counterfeit, but will admit that the vignettes and electrotypes are from the original transfer work. This opinion is contrary to statements made by Superintendent Cazlar and other officers of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, who claimed the entire plate was counterfeit. It is pleasant for taxpayers to contemplate the situation and learn that the plates on which thousand-dollar Government bonds are printed are abstracted from the Treasury, and that bonds printed on such plates are in circulation and can not be detected from those printed by the Bureau of Engraving.

It cost Connecticut about $10,000 to afford a jury an opportunity to acquit the Malley boys of the murder of Jennie Oramer. It cost the parents of these gilded youth some $20,000 to escape the gallows. But the fellows have been exhibited in their true light, and are guilty of as black a crime as the murder which was not proved on them. Some women of New Haven fancy they are martyrs. Creatures of that kind should go mingle their tears of joy at the escape of their heroes with Blanche Douglas. But they would not countenance her. She is a sinner, while the young men, one of them her paramour, whom she helped to reduce a young woman to a life like her own, are spirited and romantic youths.

In reply to the question, "What do you think the future has in store for time between New York and San Francisco?" W. G. Lowell, Superintendent of the Railway Mail Service in the Ninth District, said: "I expect to see the mail carried from city to city in three days and a half, it now takes about seven. Think what a difference this would make to business. If the Bank of California sent a draft for $1,000,000 to New York they could have the use of the money three days longer than they do now. Then business men, sending cash from one place to another to meet business obligations, would get the same benefit. In the simple matter of business the amount saved would be beyond belief."

Stirring events are likely to occur at any moment in Egypt. France and England are hurrying forward their gunboats, and hostilities may be precipitated any day. Thousands of foreign residents have been unable to leave for want of transportation, and in case of war they will be apt to suffer. Aribi Bey, leader of the revolt, is defiant and determined. He, like Garibaldi, is determined that his country shall be redeemed from the thralldom into which she has been plunged by the treachery of her own sons and foreign misrule. The war has commenced. Yesterday firing commenced on Alexandria. The telegraph gives very meagre particulars. Before it ends all Europe will be involved. Egypt will have her hands full. The Suez Canal is being carefully guarded to prevent its being destroyed.

A Washington dispatch, speaking of the political assessment matters, says that the Department employees are responding to Hubbell's circular, not only with money, but by adoption of resolutions condemning those employed who will not help the party. It has been semi-officially announced that the Republican Committee did not intend to send the campaign fund circulars to the women employees, and their contributions will be returned to those who received and responded to them.

The announcement that Guiteau's bones were bleaching in the sun on the roof of the Medical Museum at Washington drew a large number of the curious Monday. The bones were removed from the boiling vat on Saturday and washed. They will be exposed to the sun daily two weeks to bleach, after which they will be wired together and the skeleton be ready for inspection. The bones are constantly guarded on the roof by a colored man to prevent their being stolen.

Jay Gould's new conservatory at Irvington, N. Y., is 400 feet long, with several wings of eight feet each, and contains over 4,000 varieties of plants, most of which were brought from Europe this year. The grounds are 500 acres in extent, and there are large flower and vegetable gardens.

The Washington Star says there are ten thousand government clerks in Washington.

Gambling in New York.

Gambling is booming in New York. In the belt across bounded by Park Place on the north and Liberty streets on the south, there are now no less than seventeen games in full blast every week day from early in the afternoon until ten o'clock, and sometimes until midnight. There are only two or three of these that run on a bank as small as $5,000. Their general capital is $10,000, and there are three or four of them with double that amount constantly in the drawer to tempt all comers; but there is not one now in the city that finds it necessary to have a bank of $5,000, as one big up-town Merriessy combination game did during the war. That game has now reduced its capital in hand to $35,000. In Broadway and Twenty-sixth street are two, at least, of the heaviest games in New York at this time. The proprietors of one of these also run a big day game in Fulton street, and during the Summer season carry on the establishment formerly run by John Merriessy at Saratoga. The season at Saratoga is short, but very lively while it lasts, from $20,000 to $30,000 changing hands every night.

The Deseret News, the organ of the Mormon church, at Salt Lake, has at length decided the long unsettled question as to whether the planets are inhabited. The editor has had a revelation direct from heaven, and he says: "The planets are inhabited—millions of them. They form the abode of the offspring of Deity, birth-places, probation planets; prison-houses; spirit spheres; paradises; gehennas, homes for the resurrected; glorified souls for perfected and celestialized intelligences; all moving in their respective orbits, governed by fixed laws adapted to their condition and that of their inhabitants. And the earth is but a tiny speck of dust in the whirling cloud of worlds."

The Society of Decorative Art in San Francisco has taken a step in advance. It offers $345 in ten prizes for designs for embroidery, screens, portiere, drawing, outline work on silk or linen, panel work, lambrequins, and for the best design of California wild flowers suitable for decorative purposes. This is practical, encouraging to native talent, and evinces a praiseworthy spirit to advance art tastes. The society merely reserves the privilege of purchasing at the designer's named price any design entered for competition. All the designs are to be exhibited to the public.

Says an exchange: When beef is six cents on the hoof, butchers sell at from fourteen to twenty-four cents per pound, average eighteen cents. When beef is nine cents on the hoof, butchers sell at from sixteen to thirty cents, average twenty-five cents. Their profit on cheap beef is thus less in gross (though not in per cent.) than their profit on dear beef. An increase of three cents in wholesale prices causes an increase of seven cents in retail prices.

The great California millionaires don't run to family. Island Stanford had but one child, a boy of 13. Flood has a son not a very satisfactory specimen, of 25, and a daughter, a fine young lady. Mrs. Mackay has a daughter, Miss Bryant, by her first husband, and two sons, who are yet boys, by Mr. Mackay.

The fund for the relief of the wife of Sergeant Mason is again swelling under reminders of the past few days. "Betty" is very comfortable, and expresses a hope to be able to carry a pardon to her husband soon.

A Maine paper relates that a maiden lady now residing in the town of Lyman, at the age of 98 years, was in her youth engaged to be married to a respectable young man, and was making her wedding dress. Her father, entering the room, forbade her marriage. She answered: "Well, father, then you must maintain me as long as I live." She stuck her needle into the unfinished dress, arose and put it into the drawer, and there it has remained until the present time—seventy-five years. How long the father survived such treatment is not told.

Upon the railways of the United Kingdom during 1881, 42 persons were killed and 1,161 injured by accidents to trains, rolling stock, permanent way, etc., as compared with 51 and 1,023 respectively in 1880. Of those killed 23 were passengers and 19 servants of the companies, and of those injured 993 were passengers and 169 servants.

E. J. Baldwin of San Francisco has sent to the Board of Supervisors of Nevada county a bill for $1,853, being the value of a barrel of silverware lost in Donner Creek, near Truckee, about a month ago. He claims the county is responsible for it because the bridge was defective.

The man of color was a careful observer of the habits of white folks, who, when asked if he knew what the meaning of an oath in Court was, replied: "Yes, sah; an oath means that when a man swears to a lie he's got to stick to it."

In the car filled with children representing the States on the Fourth of July procession at Anaheim, a little Mongolian girl, who speaks English fluently, personified Massachusetts.

THE WORLD IN BRIEF.

The majority in the prohibition amendment in Iowa was 29,458.

Fourteen deaths from yellow fever have occurred on the Panama Canal.

The steamer Gaelic is due at San Francisco from Hongkong with a cargo of coolies.

The wheat crop of Illinois this year is six per cent. above the average of its general condition.

The Internal Revenue receipts for the past years were $150,000,000, being $11,000,000 in excess of the preceding year.

It is intimated that Chaplain Hicks, who acted as Guiteau's spiritual adviser, will lecture. Please Mr. Chaplain don't.

The total number of bodies recovered from the sunken steamer Soloto at Mingo Junction, O., is given as 51, leaving 6 still missing.

The Tariff Commissioners receive $10 per day and expenses. The people expect a pretty steep tariff when the bills begin to come in.

Telegraph offices have been opened at Nazareth and Bethlehem, and it is reported that an enterprising Jew has opened a beer shop on the Mount of Olives.

Over 22,000 Chinese have landed in San Francisco this year. By the reduction of the vaccination fees to 25 cents, the Chinese Six Companies have saved about $10,000.

The glanders is said to have appeared among the horses in Sonoma county, brought there from San Francisco. The law requires all animals with the diseases to be killed.

In Wasco county a peculiar fly has appeared, which attacks the grasshoppers, and deposits an egg upon their bodies, the larva of which eat into the hopper and destroys it.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty, who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits aropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, the color will be a thin milky hue, again changing to a dark and foetid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration to the genito-urinary organs.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma,

AND CONSUMPTION.

The few compositions which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one, but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation or maintained it so long as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years, that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by the timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it yon for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.
